Supporting Statement (100 words maximum)

“Malgosia Nowak-Kemp has always been an efficient Secretary for the International Representatives. She is a helpful, understanding and active person, so necessary for our SHNH, especially when dealing with scientists of different backgrounds from various countries of the world. I appreciate her tactful and constructive support, in particular when we are requested to present our usual reports with punctuality and conciseness. I strongly recommend that Malgosia should be re-elected: she is an invaluable Secretary in the right place at the right time” (Carlo Giovanni Violani)

Malgosia Novak-Kempt has always been an efficient International Representatives’ Coordinator. She is a very kind, intelligent and active person. She is always ready for helping all representatives around the world. When we are requested by de SHNH to send our reports, she is aware that we are punctual in our shipments. I always receive her most warm personal attention, what makes that to belong SHNH is a pleasure. So, I firmly recommend that Malgosia should be re-elected”.
(Margarita Hernández-Laille).
